Liberty is bound by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and its associated Australian Privacy Principles when it collects and handles your personal information.

Liberty collects personal information, including from insurance brokers, in order to provide its services and products, manage claims and for purposes ancillary to its business. Liberty passes it to third parties involved in this process such as Liberty's related companies, reinsurers, agents, loss adjusters and other service providers. We may store your information with third party cloud or other types of networked or electronic storage providers. Third parties may be located locally or overseas in the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, Singapore, Hong Kong and Malaysia. Your information may be transferred to countries without comparable privacy laws if it is reasonably necessary to provide you with the products or services you seek from Liberty. If you do not provide the personal information Liberty or other relevant third parties require to offer you specific products or services, Liberty may not be able to provide the appropriate type or level of service.

If you wish to gain access to or correct your personal information, make a privacy complaint, or if you have any query about how Liberty collects or handles your personal information please write to Liberty's Privacy Officer at the address above or by emailing: privacy.officer.ap@libertyglobalgroup.com. To obtain a copy of Liberty's Privacy Policy go to Liberty's website (libertyspecialtymarkets.com.au) or request a copy from Liberty's Privacy Officer.

When you give Liberty personal or sensitive information about other individuals, Liberty relies on you to provide its Privacy Notice to them. If you have not done this, you must tell Liberty before you provide the relevant data.
