Stockfeed manufacturers

We are specialists in liability insurance for the stockfeed manufacturing industry of Australia. Liberty Specialty Markets (Liberty) has been providing tailored insurance solutions in this segment for over 15 years through Griffiths Goodall Insurance Brokers.

Australia is a significant producer of livestock products, including chicken, pork, beef, lamb, dairy products and fish. In order to raise these animals, farmers need reliable and high quality animal feeds. The stock feed manufacturing industry produces compound animal feeds to meet the requirements of Australian livestock producers.

Our team of specialist Underwriters, Claims and Risk Engineering staff have a wealth of expertise within this industry.
