Target Market Determination

1. Product Disclosure Statement to which this TMD applies

This Target Market Determination (TMD) applies to the Liberty Corporate Travel Insurance Policy (Product) issued and underwritten by Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, Australia Branch (ABN 61 086 083 605; AFSL No. 530842 (for claims handling and settling services only)) a company incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts USA (the liability of members is limited) (referred to as Liberty, we, us or our in this document) and referred to in the following Product Disclosure Statement (PDS):

- Liberty Corporate Travel Insurance PDS & Policy Wording – 28 March 2026

2. Date from which this TMD is effective

28 March 2026 (effective date)

3. About this TMD

The purpose of this TMD is to describe:

- the type of consumer (retail consumer) the Product is designed for;
- how it is distributed so it reaches retail consumers in the target market; and
- the review process, and reporting and monitoring arrangements, to ensure the Product remains relevant and is not being acquired outside the target market.

This TMD has been prepared in accordance with Part 7.8A of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and ASIC Regulatory Guide 274.

It is not intended to be a summary of the Product's features, terms and conditions and is not intended to convey financial product advice. Retail consumers should refer to the PDS and any supplementary documents which outline the relevant terms and conditions of the Product when making a decision about this Product.

4. Class of retail consumers that fall within the target market

The target market for the Product is businesses, entities, organisations and facilities:

- whose directors, employees, contractors and members undertake travel for or on behalf of, or which are authorised by, those business, entities, organisations or facilities (Approved or Authorised Travel);
- where their Approved or Authorised Travel is travel interstate or overseas for business or study purposes or for the purpose of other endeavours aligned to the business, entity, organisation or facility that is acquiring the Product, for example: attending a conference, symposium, colloquium or workshop; taking up, and returning from, an expatriate posting; undertaking a study programme endorsed by an educational institution, or embarking on approved tours, such as a touring orchestra, choir or sports tournament; and
- where the business, entity, organization or facility needs cover for travel, medical, property, liability and other risks associated with the Approved or Authorised Travel.

The likely financial situation of the business, entity, organisation or facility will enable them to pay the premiums for the Product, pay any excess that applies to a claim and bear any amounts for loss, damage or liability that are not covered by the Product.

5. Class of retail consumers who do not fall within the target market

The Product's target market does not include businesses, entities, organisations and facilities whose directors, employees, contractors or members (as applicable):

- do not undertake Approved or Authorised Travel;
- undertake Approved or Authorised Travel:
  - as pilots;
  - for the purpose of training for or participating in professional sport, unless agreed by us;
  - that includes cover for the pre-existing conditions of persons over the age of 90 years;
  - to Afghanistan, Iraq, Israel, Somalia, Sudan or sanctioned countries, or need cover for war in Australia or their country of residence;
  - for more than 180 days per journey, unless agreed by us;
- need cover for death, disablement and other events arising from accidental bodily injury and sickness which commence more than 12 months after occurrence of the injury or sickness;
- are already adequately covered by Medicare or private health insurance and workers compensation schemes for their Approved or Authorised Travel;
- only require cover for the personal or leisure travel; or
- are unable to pay the excess when required or to financially contribute where their claim is for an amount which is greater than the aggregate limits or sub-limits.

6. Product description and key attributes

The following section sets out the key eligibility requirements and attributes of the Product.

The Product provides dedicated assistance to businesses, entities, organisations and facilities whose directors, employees, contractors and members have travelled or are travelling overseas or interstate, including in connection with:

- Overseas medical expenses and evacuation, including emergency assistance

7. Likely objectives, financial situation and needs of retail consumers in the target market

Retail consumers in the target market for the Product will be businesses, entities, organisations and facilities that likely want and need to manage financial risks associated with the authorised business travel of their directors, employees, contractors and members.

Retail consumers in the target market will therefore have the likely objective of transferring a significant proportion of that financial risk through insurance protection of the type provided by this Product.

Retail consumers in the target market will have a likely financial situation that enables them to pay the premiums for the Product, pay any excess that applies to a claim and financially contribute to any amounts for loss, damage or liability that are not covered by the Product.

8. Consistency between target market and the Product

The Product is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the class of consumers in the target market. The determination of consistency is based on an analysis of the key terms, features and attributes of the Product and our view that these are consistent with the identified class of consumers.

The Product is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the class of retail consumers in the target market. This determination of consistency is based on an analysis of the key terms, features and attributes of the Product and our view that these are consistent with the identified class of retail consumers.

9. How the Product is distributed

Distribution channels

The Product is only distributed through insurance brokers with appropriate authorisation levels and licensing approvals, including with respect to the provision of financial product advice. Through such channels, the consumer must meet appropriate eligibility requirements, which include the elements of the target market set out in section 4 above. The insurance brokers are required to submit application forms completed by or on behalf of their retail consumer clients which include relevant eligibility questions. The Product is only issued to retail consumers where the answers to the eligibility questions establish that they fall within the target market.

Distribution conditions

This Product should only be distributed under the following circumstances:

- to businesses, entities, organisations and facilities that meet Policy eligibility requirements.

Adequacy of distribution conditions and restrictions

Liberty is confident that the distribution conditions and restrictions will make it likely that retail consumers who purchase the Product are in the class of retail consumers who fall within the target market. This is because those conditions and restrictions provide for offers and sales only to be made to retail consumers who have confirmed their eligibility, including with respect to elements of the target market set out in section 4 above, and that Liberty has adequate arrangements in place with appropriately authorised insurance brokers to ensure that this occurs in practice.

12. The meaning of certain words

Significant Dealing

The term 'Significant dealing' is not defined in the Corporations Act. However, in RG 274, ASIC articulates a list of non- exhaustive factors that it expects will be relevant for issuers when determining whether a Significant dealing has occurred, including:

- (a) the proportion of retail consumers who acquire the product who are not in the target market;
- (b) the actual or potential harm to retail consumers acquiring the product who are not in the target market, and
- (c) the nature and extent of the inconsistency of distribution with the TMD.

Target market refers to the class of retail consumers for whom this Product has been designed.
