Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

Whenever you interact with us in relation to this policy, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation.

This means you have an obligation to take reasonable care to be honest, accurate and complete in the answers to the questions we ask you, including questions which may relate to anyone else to whom this insurance applies.

If you make a misrepresentation, we can exercise any available legal rights against you, including refusing or cancelling your policy, or reducing our liability in respect of any claims.

If you are unsure about any question(s) we ask you, please tell us or discuss these with your insurance broker.

Privacy Notice

We are bound by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and its associated Australian Privacy Principles when we collect and handle your personal information. This notice provides some key information about our privacy practices in relation to personal information. For full details, please see our privacy policy.

We collect personal information in order to provide our services and products, manage claims and for purposes ancillary to our business.

We may collect, use and disclose your personal information for those purposes. Your personal information may include sensitive information such as information or opinion about your health and/or medical records. Personal information is in some circumstances collected from third parties, such as health providers and insurance brokers.

We may disclose personal information to third parties involved in this process such as our related companies, reinsurers, agents, loss adjusters, health providers and other service providers.

We may store your information with third party cloud or other types of networked or electronic storage providers.

Third party providers may be located overseas including in the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, Singapore, Hong Kong and Malaysia.

Your information may be transferred to countries without comparable privacy laws if it is reasonably necessary to provide you with the products or services you seek from Liberty. If you do not provide all of the personal information Liberty or other relevant third parties require to offer or provide you with specific products or services, Liberty may not be able to provide the appropriate type or level of service.

If you wish to gain access to or correct your personal information, make a privacy complaint, or if you have any query about how Liberty collects or handles your personal information please write to Liberty's Privacy Officer at:
