Trade Sanctions Notice

Due to current trade sanctions requirements Liberty will not provide any cover to any Insured or Insured Person that has any direct or indirect exposure to Iran, Sudan, Syria, North Korea and Cuba, including any persons on temporary assignment in Australia from those countries, nor shall we make any claims payments to any person that has a claim in Australia requiring payment back to any of those named countries.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, you have a duty of disclosure under section 21 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept this insurance risk and if so, on what terms. This duty of disclosure applies until the commencement of the policy.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- ▶ that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us;
- ▶ that is of common knowledge;
- ▶ that we know or should know in the ordinary course of the insurance business; or
- ▶ where we waive your duty of disclosure.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce the amount we would pay you if you make a claim, cancel your insurance contract, or both.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay your claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

HOW TO FILL OUT THIS FORM

Please ensure you answer all questions. Any unanswered or illegible questions will delay our decision as to whether we can offer insurance cover.

Privacy Notice

We are bound by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and its associated Australian Privacy Principles when we collect and handle your personal information. This notice provides some key information about our privacy practices in relation to personal information. For full details, please see our privacy policy.

We collect personal information in order to provide our services and products, manage claims and for purposes ancillary to our business. We may collect, use and disclose your personal information for those purposes. Your personal information may include sensitive information such as information or opinion about your health and/or medical records. Personal information is in some circumstances collected from third parties, such as health providers and insurance brokers.

We may disclose personal information to third parties involved in this process such as our related companies, reinsurers, agents, loss adjusters, health providers and other service providers.

We may store your information with third party cloud or other types of networked or electronic storage providers.

Third party providers may be located overseas including in the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, Singapore, Hong Kong and Malaysia.

Your information may be transferred to countries without comparable privacy laws if it is reasonably necessary to provide you with the products or services you seek from Liberty. If you do not provide all of the personal information Liberty or other relevant third parties require to offer or provide you with specific products or services, Liberty may not be able to provide the appropriate type or level of service.

If you wish to gain access to or correct your personal information, make a privacy complaint, or if you have any query about how Liberty collects or handles your personal information please write to Liberty's Privacy Officer at:
